

Incident Learning: What happened?

On 04 December 2018 at approximately 04h00 a Service Provider twisted his ankle when descending a catladder.

What are the learnings for implementation?

- Create awareness and understand hazards of routine activities.
- More care to be taken when ascending and descending from ladders.
- Risk assessment revised and communicated.
- Task Risk Identification Checklists discussed with personnel to refresh